

BUILDERS REITERATE DEFIANCE OF UNIONS

President Parsons Declares Contracts Will Be Awarded Without Dictation.

PEACE IS DESIRED,
ASSERT EMPLOYERS

Resolutions Passed By League Constitute Agreement to Fight Discrimination by Labor Bodies.

"We do not intend to fight the labor unions, but we are not going to let them bulldoze us.

"Our position in this fight is one of defense and not offense, but we do not intend to allow the unions to tell us to whom we shall award contracts and to whom we shall not, just because of the troubles they may have with the individual employers on account of the men they employ."

This was the statement given out today by James L. Parsons, president of the executive board of the Builders' League of Washington, with reference to the meeting held by that organization when resolutions were adopted denouncing certain movements of the labor unions to interfere with and restrain members of the league from awarding subcontracts to subcontractors who employ non-union men.

The resolutions in question were as follows:

"Whereas it has come to our notice that certain movements are being inaugurated by labor unions to interfere with and restrain certain of our members in the use of economical, fair, and honorable methods in the conduct of their business, by passing and putting into effect rules and regulations prohibiting the employment of union and non-union men on certain jobs, where the builder, in order to obtain the best results, and through circumstances making it necessary, has awarded sub-contracts to subcontractors who employ non-union men and vice versa.

"Therefore, be it resolved, That we will not permit any of our members to be discriminated against by labor unions, and that we reserve to ourselves the right to employ such subcontractors and mechanics as, in our judgment, will produce the best results.

"Be it resolved further by the Master Builders' Association of the District of Columbia, Inc., and the Builders' League of Washington, D. C., That the members of each organization hereby agree to solicit estimates from any subcontractors they may see fit, and to award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder so invited without discrimination, and that any effort or attempt on the part of any organization or combination of workmen, or other persons, to deprive any member of the two above associations of their right to employ whomsoever they may deem proper or their business interests seem to justify, will be opposed by every member thereof, individually and as a body."

BURNED TO DEATH BY MOLTEN METAL

One Man Dead and Several Dangerously Injured by Overturned Ladle.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Thomas Powers was burned to death and several others were seriously injured in the Illinois Steel Company's mills in South Chicago early today when a ladle of molten metal was overturned.

The man was hot liquid beneath the ladle when the ladle immediately showered down upon him.

FINED FOR SHOOTING
TOO NEAR A BRIDGE

One Hunter Forfeits $5, and Others Have Trouble for Heedlessness.

Several hunters along the Eastern Branch have got into trouble by ignoring the regulation which prohibits shooting within 200 yards of the bridge.

Today in Police Court Pietro Tornacci forfeited $5 on a charge of this character.

William E. Berkley was also in court on a similar charge. He was allowed to go on the statement of Police Officer Osterman, stationed at the bridge, who declared that in no previous season has he known a more orderly crowd of gunners than those who have visited the marshes yesterday and today.

Orders have been issued to Capt. Harley B. Ferguson, Engineer Corps, to proceed to Havana, Cuba, to take charge of the preliminary work of raising or removing the wreck of the battleship Maine from Havana harbor.

The other engineer officers on the the wreck are Col. William M. Black, engineer officer at New York, and ficer at Norfolk.

ADMIRAL EVANS RAPS MAINE PROHIBITION

BAR HARBOR, Me., Sept. 2.—Admiral Robley D. Evans, U. S. N., retired, who has been a summer visitor here, declares he has had more trouble over his sailors getting intoxicated in Maine ports than in those of any other coast State in the Union.

"So far as the liquor question is concerned, I would rather take my men any place in the world than bring them into Maine."

PLANNING NEW SHIPS FOR CANADIAN MAILES

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Important developments regarding the British-Canadian mail service are imminent, according to the Central News, which says that the agreement between the Allan line and the Canadian Pacific will not be renewed.

The Allan line will handle the service, it is stated, with three turbine steamers of 2,000 tons, with a speed of twenty-two knots, plans for which are now being made.

BLUNDERING SAILOR LIKELY TO GO FREE

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 2.—Machinist Edward Jacques, from the ship Indiana, who pleaded guilty to a charge of negligence in leaving some tools in a cylinder of one of the engines, probably will be leniently dealt with.

The man's trial was resumed this morning and it was obvious that members of the court which is trying him believe the man's culpability has been reduced by his explanation of the affair.

PARALYTIC CURED; CALLS IT MIRACLE

CONNOSSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 2.—At the age of seventy-seven, and for the first time in five years, Capt. W. F.
Lampus is today able to use his arms and legs and speak with ease. Almost total paralysis had afflicted him.
A slight tingling sensation crept over him yesterday, he explained, and he felt that he might move. The long-unused muscles responded and he walked unsupported. Captain Lampus attributes his cure to divine intervention.
